Activity 3: Five-Agency Compliance Calendar

Mapping: K1, A1 / LO1

Duration: 25 minutes

Deliverable: 12-month compliance calendar and evidence register.

Goal

Convert company facts into a calendar of ACRA, IRAS, MOM/CPF, WSH and PDPA responsibilities with evidence owners.

Real Case Study

Case: Wan Lin Healthcare Centre - income tax and GST evasions

Date: 12 December 2022

Status: Convictions and sentences reported by IRAS

Official source: IRAS - Husband and wife convicted for multiple tax evasions

Published Facts

IRAS reported that Lim Meng Fatt and Gan Bee Bee were convicted for income tax and GST evasions involving Wan Lin Healthcare Centre Pte Ltd. The case included omitted output tax, fraudulent GST deregistration while the company remained liable to be registered, and a false Productivity and Innovation Credit claim. The court imposed imprisonment terms and substantial financial penalties.

Exercise Boundary

Build the calendar from the published tax failures, then add ACRA, employment/CPF, WSH and PDPA rows as a clearly labelled prospective control extension. Do not imply that IRAS found Wan Lin in breach of those other regimes.

Questions

1. Which tax events and records should have appeared in Wan Lin's compliance calendar?
2. Which evidence should reconcile sales, output tax, GST status and corporate tax?
3. Which independent review could have detected the published failures earlier?
4. Which non-tax calendar rows are prospective extensions rather than case findings?

Detailed Step-by-Step

1. List the facts that make each regulator relevant.
2. Create calendar rows for obligation, trigger/frequency, owner, reviewer and evidence.
3. Add preventive reminders and a separate overdue escalation point.
4. Link tax and filing events to the underlying financial close process.
5. Add incident-driven events for safety and personal-data breaches.

6. Run a completeness check against the five regulator categories.

Worksheet

Requirement / issue	Business fact	Gap or impact	Decision / control	Owner	Deadline	Evidence

Acceptance Check

- ■ Five regulator categories present
- ■ Trigger/frequency accurate
- ■ Owner and reviewer separated
- ■ Evidence and escalation captured

Debrief

- What assumption had the greatest effect on your recommendation?
- What evidence would a director, auditor or regulator expect to see?
- What would you verify with qualified legal, tax or sector advice?

Sources

- IRAS - Husband and wife convicted for multiple tax evasions
- ACRA - Company directors' duties & key obligations
- IRAS - Corporate Income Tax
- IRAS - Responsibilities of GST-registered businesses
- MOM - Employer's CPF contributions
- MOM - WSH Act responsibilities of stakeholders
- PDPC - Required to notify the PDPC

Educational activity only; verify current requirements with the relevant regulator and qualified advisers.

Real-Life Case Brief: Wan Lin Healthcare Centre

Regulator: Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore (IRAS)

Published: 12 December 2022

Procedural status: Convictions and sentences reported

Verified: 12 August 2026

Regulator-Published Facts

- Lim Meng Fatt and Gan Bee Bee were convicted for income-tax and GST evasions involving Wan Lin Healthcare Centre Pte Ltd.
- The conduct included omitted output tax and fraudulent GST deregistration while the company remained liable to be registered.
- The case also included a false Productivity and Innovation Credit claim.

Classroom Boundary

The tax failures are case facts. ACRA, employment/CPF, WSH and PDPA calendar entries are prospective control extensions and must not be described as breaches found in this case.

Official Evidence

IRAS - Husband and wife convicted for multiple tax evasions

Completion Checklist: Five-Agency Calendar

- Record the obligation, trigger or frequency, owner, reviewer and evidence.
- Include ACRA, IRAS, employment/CPF, WSH and PDPA categories.
- Link GST and income-tax events to the financial close and source records.
- Include incident-driven events rather than forcing them into fixed annual dates.
- Set reminder, due and overdue-escalation points.
- Keep owner and independent reviewer roles separate.
- Mark non-tax rows as prospective extensions, not Wan Lin case findings.
- Add a current-guidance verification date for every deadline used.
